Be a Young Placemaker and build your city. Application details are on the flipside of this card. Complete details can be found at www.sanjoseca.gov/youngplacemakers.
Young Placemakers is an opportunity for you to take ownership over public spaces in your city. Learn how to take innovative ideas and help bring engaging community building activities to parks, alleyways, or streets in San Jose.

Application Information
- Apply online today: sanjoseca.gov/youngplacemakers.
- Applications will be accepted until January 31, 2017.
- Application is open to all high school age youth.
- You must be able to attend workgroup meetings twice per week.
- Questions? Contact us Zacharias Mendez at (408) 793-4171 or zacharias.mendez@sanjoseca.gov

If you are unable to submit the application online, you may request a paper application from Zacharias Mendez.

Young Placemakers is a program lead by the City of San José Department of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services, with support from the #408Creates program of the Office of Cultural Affairs.

To request an accommodation for City-sponsored events or an alternative format for printed materials, please contact City Hall 408-535-3570 (TTY) as soon as possible, but at least three business days before the event.